

At this time, there are no contributors listed related to these specific requests. The Laurel Ridge Community College Educational Foundation typically does not publicize contribution details unless such contributions are associated with specific projects and permission is pre-approved. Contributions to the Foundation are included in aggregate within the Income Statement attachment.